The Individual Membership at CAMLab is an innovative initiative designed for individuals with a deep interest in art, culture, multimedia practice, and interdisciplinary exploration. Our individual members, hailing from diverse academic backgrounds and professions, dive beyond standard exhibition visits to engage more closely with our collections, artists, curators, and scholars. They will not only have the chance to fully explore the Lab's exhibitions and look behind-the-scenes, but also gain access to numerous community gatherings and learning opportunities.

The CAMLab Individual Membership Program acts as a unique intersection of art, culture, and innovation, and serves as a platform for young professionals to shape their journey of self-development and social engagement within the arts.

Family

The Family Membership at CAMLab invites families interested in cultural and artistic experiences to embark on a shared journey of art exploration and cultural education. Family members of all ages will discover their ideal paths to engage with art and culture through the program. This membership focuses on creating personalized and immersive experiences for the whole family.

“Engage in a shared journey of artistic exploration.”
